Personal: We moved to Lake Oswego for the schools and stayed for the community. For 20 years, I've run my own executive coaching and leadership development firm while living across the country and overseas. Since settling here, I've fully invested myself in this community: Board Chair for the Lake Oswego Chamber of Commerce, Chair of the LOSD 2025 Citizens' Bond Campaign, active member of LO Rotary, and dedicated parent volunteer at LOHS.

Priorities:

- Expanding economic development: Championing the local businesses that make LO thrive.
- Delivering on capital projects and shaping our future: Keeping infrastructure improvements on time and on budget, while guiding fiscally responsible, sustainable, community-driven visions for the Foothills, our library, and other key efforts.
- Growing responsibly: Balancing state housing mandates with local needs, while preserving the unique character of our community.
- Protecting what makes LO special: Safeguarding our parks and waterways through committed environmental stewardship.
- Keeping our families safe: Supporting police, fire and emergency preparedness so every resident feels secure and protected.

"As Bond Chair, Heather led with heart, community engagement, and discipline — she delivers." — Liz Hartman, Past Chair Lake Oswego School Board

"Heather brings the kind of steady, collaborative leadership our city needs right now." — Mayor Joe Buck

"Heather knows our business community and is committed to helping it thrive." — City Councilor John Wendland

I show up for LO and I'd be honored to earn your vote!
