RESPECTING OUR PAST. SHAPING OUR FUTURE TOGETHER

We must make responsible decisions, strengthening our community today & wisely preparing for our future.

Responsible Decision Making

- Tax dollars spent should always add value to our city
- Decisions should be based on facts not politics
- Diverse views must always be given an ear and respected

“Neil has extensive experience in advancing long range plans. He is committed to creating a vibrant, sustainable future for all in LO” Ali Afghan, Current LO City Councilor

Strengthening Our Community

- Prioritize safety & security of our neighborhoods. Identify pathways around schools. Create safer ways to walk
- Constantly maintain and improve our infrastructure so we keep and attract businesses
- Support our parks, the arts & recreational facilities

“Leadership is about listening, sound factual choices, good judgement & accountability. Please join me in voting for Neil. He gets it.” Skip O’Neill, Former City Councilor

Shaping the Future Together

- Salem oversteps. Let’s manage their orders to conform with LO building standards & maintain LO neighborhood character
- Wisely manage taxpayer money so North Anchor, the fire station, the sewer treatment facility is on budget & on time
- Plan long term. Identify impacts and solutions for population growth, increased cars, new technology

“The job of councilor is to protect Lake Oswego as an asset with a positive image. Neil has real world experience to do just that.” Jackie Manz, Current LO City Councilor
