Dear Neighbors,

I ran for County Commission to fight for greater investments in east Multnomah County, which has some of the highest poverty rates in the state. I'm proud of the progress we have made, but there is much more to do, from addressing generational poverty to improving public safety. In my next term, I will build on our accomplishments so we continue to create opportunities in East County.

Increasing access to jobs in skilled trades

I cosponsored the Construction Diversity Equity Fund which sets aside 1% of the County's capital projects for apprenticeships for women and communities of color.

Expanding Homeless Outreach and Programs Engagement Team

Successfully advocated for a third year of funding for the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office HOPE team (Homeless Outreach and Programs Engagement). This two-person, full-time team connects houseless residents to services so they can find a pathway out of homelessness.

Improving access to healthcare

I fought for a new school-based health center at Reynolds High School which is opening 2020 on their newly remodeled campus.
