Tri-County Opiate Summit - Update

Dwight Holton, Lines for Life, provided information about the Oregon Coalition for Responsible use of Meds (OrCRM).

Dwight provided background on the opioid crisis, trends, tools for surveillance, OrCRM's strategies and action plan, and the upcoming summit. There have been several summits resulting in actions steps and commitments. The following highlights were mentioned:

- Gaps between law enforcement and treatment providers is a gap rich for opportunity.
- Continuity of treatment from jail to recovery is complicated but important.
- Pharmacy-based disposal of painkillers needs to be at every pharmacy.

The presentation ended with the current proposed summit flow. See the presentation for details.

Case Companion (Victims Portal)

Denise Pena, DCJ, and Annie Wynne, MCDA presented the Victims Portal “Case Companion,” which is a tool for victims navigating the criminal justice system. The process for creating the portal, the challenges, and next steps were discussed. See the presentations for details.

The meeting was adjourned.
