OPTIONAL INFORMATIONCommitted to keep PCC affordable and low cost

The American dream is the dream of opportunity to build a life through earned success. This dream starts with education. My commitment is to keep PCC's costs low and affordable to educate and train our community and help them thrive and succeed through life.

Committed to innovation and sustainable economic growth, through education

My commitment is to offer careers and programs that are aligned to our regional economic development goals that aim to create high paying jobs in sectors such as: Green energy technology, software and apparel design, food processing, aerospace, and sustainable technologies that create high paying jobs.

Committed to Job Creation through a highly educated work force

Our students are the driving force of the regional economy. My commitment is to train and educate them to be the best educated workforce in the region, by offering the best technical programs that meet industry demands to bring job creators and foreign investment into our local economy.

Committed to bringing education and economic development back to the community

My commitment is to maximize the use of infrastructure and spur economic activity in our community by transforming empty malls and buildings into educational labs and learning centers to better serve the community. My commitment is to bring students and faculty to those empty spaces by setting up class rooms and programs that are easily accessible by students and will contribute to keep costs down and bring the urban campus experience closer to the needs of our community to spur economic activity.

Committed to you the voter, the tax payer, the student, the parent, the employer and the educator

I am Bernardo Tuma and I would appreciate your vote.
