OPTIONAL INFORMATIONMARTIN GONZALEZ KNOWS THE VALUE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Martín González, the first in his family to graduate from high school, knows first hand the importance of a good public education. A proud parent of graduates from Jefferson, Lincoln, and Benson High Schools, two generations of his family have attended PPS.

SCHOOLS AS COMMUNITY CENTERS

Gonzalez values and consistently supports schools and students that have improved their performance and opposed closing such schools. He supported the capital bond to rebuild Roosevelt, Grant and Marshall High Schools, and to build a new Faubion School.

WORKING FOR ALL STUDENTS

"Martín is a leader who provides a voice for all students in the District. As Co-Chair he has led the board to find common ground when making critical investments that address critical needs to get the District where it needs to be. He has consistently demonstrated his commitment to addressing disparities and closing the achievement gap in our schools, something that needs to continue." Matt Morton, PPS Board Member

"We all have a responsibility to ensure our students reach their full potential. We can provide quality schools by building stronger partnerships with communities and parents. I am asking for your support: Join me in building strong, effective schools." Martín González, Portland School Board Co-chair
