OPTIONAL INFORMATION

Dear Friends & Neighbors,

It has been a tremendous honor and privilege serving as your locally elected school board member both here at home and in Salem. I firmly believe that the future prosperity of our community depends not only on the success of students in today's classrooms, but also the proactive involvement of our community. I sincerely hope that you will lend me your vote and join us in moving Reynolds forward!

As your Reynolds School Board representative, I am committed to ensuring:

- Every child has access to an excellent public education and the opportunity to achieve.
- Fiscal responsibility and increased transparency in spending taxpayer dollars.
- Support for teachers; the success of our students and future of our communities depend on it.
- Working families have the support to be actively involved in their children's education.
- Increased opportunities for student achievement in higher education and career training.
- Providing a safe environment where children can focus on academic & personal growth.

I ask for your vote on May 21st!

Endorsed by:
