OCCUPATION: Principal Management Auditor, Metro

OCCUPATIONAL BACKGROUND: Certified Internal Auditor and Certified Government Auditing Professional, six years experience auditing

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND: Masters in Public Affairs, University of Wisconsin-Madison; BA, International Affairs and Economics, Lewis and Clark College

PRIOR GOVERNMENTAL EXPERIENCE: Senior Management Auditor, Metro; Senior Economist, Oregon Economic and Community Development Department; Research Analyst, Department of Administrative Services; AmeriCorps VISTA

BRIAN EVANS knows how special Oregon is as a place to live and work. That is the reason he makes it his home and that is why he is running for Metro Auditor. He and his wife, Jill, live in southeast Portland.

UNDERSTANDS GOVERNMENT AUDITING

BRIAN EVANS has the skills and leadership to improve Metro. For the past six years, he completed audits of almost every aspect of Metro's operations. He led trainings for fellow auditors and presented his work at national and regional conferences. Two of the audits he worked on received national awards for excellence from the Association of Local Government Auditors.

COMMITMENT TO IMPROVE GOVERNMENT

Pushing government to change is not always easy but it is a critical responsibility of auditors. BRIAN EVANS takes the citizen point of view to improve services and ensure accountability for taxpayers. He will bring integrity, independence and continuous improvement to the Metro Auditor's Office.

EXPERIENCE AND KNOWLEDGE TO BE SUCCESSFUL

BRIAN EVANS brings strong analytical skills and broad experiences that are well suited to the challenges facing our region. Prior to auditing, he worked on small business development programs and conducted analysis to inform economic development efforts. This helped him understand how the right steps by government can contribute to the success of the region.

"I am pleased that Brian is willing to serve the Metro region. He has the qualifications and experience necessary to be an excellent Metro Auditor."

Suzanne Flynn, Metro Auditor
