

Multnomah County Safe Routes to School Program Menu of Activities

Serving Gresham-Barlow, Reynolds, and Centennial School Districts

Multnomah County Safe Routes to School (SRTS) Program staff provide schools and school districts with FREE resources to encourage students and families to walk and roll to school safely and more often, and help solve other transportation challenges.

The Multnomah County SRTS Program can work with you to provide the following activities at your school(s).

Contact MaryJo Andersen to learn more or sign-up!

✉ maryjo.andersen@multco.us

📞 971-202-3195

ACTIVITIES

School Site Circulation Support

Support for fun activities and educational campaigns that improve traffic and safety for families getting to school.

- ▶ No-Idling Campaign
- ▶ Park and Walk
- ▶ Walking School Bus Logistics
- ▶ Walk Audits

Menu of Activities (continued)

Walk + Roll Event Support

Host events before, after, or during the school day to celebrate and encourage walking and rolling to school.

- ▶ Incentives
- ▶ Route Maps
- ▶ Virtual Challenges/ Activities
- ▶ In-Person Assistance to Staff:

Community Walks

Meet and Greet Table

Walking School Bus

Bike Fairy

Bike Safety Lessons (6-8th grade)

Our staff are available to teach a one time or short series of lessons (in-person or virtual), or train your staff to teach the short curriculum.

Pedestrian Safety Lessons (K-5th grade)

Our staff are available to teach a one time or short series of lessons (in-person or virtual), or train your staff to teach the short curriculum.

Safety Resources

Printed or digital materials to share safety information with families and students.

- ▶ Lawn Signs
- ▶ Promotion and Education for Families
- ▶ Mini-grants from Metro

*Don't see something for you on this list?
Tell us what you have in mind and we can tailor something for your school.*

Updated October 2021