“Renee Anderson will bring wisdom, teaching experience and great care for students to the MESD Board. She will use her years of experience as a teacher and service on the budget oversight committee to make sure tax dollars are used effectively and best serve students. Please join me in supporting Renee.” Julia Brim-Edwards, PPS Board Member

“As an Afro-Latina educator and new leader, I appreciate the example Renee Anderson has set and continues to set for what inclusion, support, and justice looks like for our schools. Her years of dedication by serving on the PPS Community Budget Review Committee and as a Board Member of ORASBE proves that she will fight for educators like me. If elected to the MESD Board, I have no doubt that Renee will advocate for the training and strengthen the services our students need across Multnomah County”- Angela Bonilla, Portland Association of Teachers, President

As an administrator for educational programs and math teacher for 45 years my priority was always to ensure students are prepared to become successful adults, As a MESD member I will continue to work to get the best outcomes for our children by:

- Stewarding Resources
- Advocating for Professional Development for Educators and Staff
- Prioritize Retaining and Recruiting Educators
- Work to Bridge the Gap for Underserved Students
- Invest in students' and educators' academic and social-emotional wellbeing
- Ensure the Equitable Distribution of Resources in MESD
