"Courtney is a public servant through and through. She has committed her professional and personal life to advocating for legislation to help Oregon's students and working families."

-Representative Carla Piluso

"Courtney's experience as a working student who is still paying hundreds in student loans every month is exactly the voice we need. Couple that perspective with her experience in advocacy and government, it's clear Courtney is the best choice."

-Gresham City Councillor Eddy Morales

Courtney is a tireless advocate for East County's students, teachers, and working families. Her advocacy resulted in policies like Oregon's Tuition Equity and the Oregon Promise, enabling students to attend community college for as little as $50 a term. Decisions impacting students should be made by someone like Courtney who personally understands the implications and who is committed to bringing student and faculty voices to the table.

Proudly Standing with Courtney:

Senator Shemia Fagan - Representative Diego Hernandez
Representative & MHCC Faculty Chris Gorsek
Mult. County Auditor Jennifer McGuirk
