LIVED EXPERIENCE. REAL RESULTS. TRUSTED LEADERSHIP

As a proud MHCC graduate and a member of the Native American and LGBTQ+ communities, I've spent my life fighting for those too often left out. I understand the challenges our communities face because I've lived them. From grassroots organizing to shaping policy at the local, state, and federal levels, I've worked hard to turn struggle into action. I'm running because MHCC deserves leaders who center those most impacted by the systems around them, who listen, build trust, and deliver results.

COMMUNITY DRIVEN, RESULTS ORIENTED

I'll work hard to support our students, faculty, staff, and community by:

- Strengthening career, transfer, and apprenticeship pathways so students are prepared for jobs, higher education, and lifelong success
- Promoting equity and inclusion by centering the voices and needs of students, faculty, staff, and communities most impacted by systemic barriers
- Ensuring MHCC remains affordable and accessible so that cost is never a barrier to opportunity
- Fostering transparent, collaborative leadership that builds trust across the MHCC community
