My values lie in promoting community involvement, education, family values, DEI, and safety. I firmly believe that community involvement is a powerful tool to create positive change. As an elected official, I will prioritize transparency and accountability, ensuring that all voices are heard and respected.

- I am committed to family values including compassionate communication to foster strong relationships and a sense of belonging. I will advocate for policies such as affordable childcare, parental leave, and healthcare.
- Education is the key to building thriving communities. I am dedicated to increasing funding for public schools, providing resources for teachers, and ensuring accessible education for all.
- I am committed to celebrating our differences and promoting policies that protect against discrimination and encourage multicultural education.
- Safe communities are essential for all of our security. I will work to strengthen community-based policing and restorative justice programs.
