Mike Reese
Our Sheriff. Our Values.

“Mike’s values are Multnomah County’s values. Mike is committed to accountability and he is exactly who we need leading the Sheriff’s office.” Multnomah County Chair Deborah Kafoury

Mike understands that the problems the sheriff’s office confronts begin with lives in crisis. For him these are not just law enforcement issues they are about who we are as people.

Mike has been a leader on addiction, mental health and housing related issues.

“As a board member for one of Portland’s largest providers of housing for the homeless, Mike showed genuine compassion for people.” Doreen Binder, former executive director Transition Projects Inc.

Mike is committed to working with social service partners, community leaders, and public safety professionals to keep our community safe by breaking the cycle of recidivism, especially when it involves addiction and mental illness.

“I served as Chair of the Behavioral Health Unit Advisory Committee when Mike was the Portland Chief of Police. He took the time to understand our community’s concerns and find solutions to help de-escalate potentially deadly interactions with those in mental health crisis. He listens to his critics and works to include community advocates in the process.” Shannon Pullen, Community Mental Health Advocate
