REPRESENTATION MATTERS!

Mingus Mapps is running because he believes Portland can only reach its full potential if all voices are at the table. Portland is diverse and our city council should look like the people who live here. Portland needs a leader who is truly one of us - that's Mingus.

Mingus is an accountable, transparent leader with the experience we need to address Portland's toughest challenges. Mingus will:

MAKE CITY HALL WORK FOR PORTLAND

- Work to reform our city charter and advocate for regionally based city council districts so Portlanders across the city are represented.
- Hire a city manager so all city bureaus work effectively together.

PRIORITIZE HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS

- Create supportive housing for those who are chronically homeless and build more affordable housing citywide.
- Dramatically increase funding for short-term rental assistance programs so struggling Portlanders can stay in their homes.
- Coordinate services addressing homelessness across city bureaus.

SUPPORT OUR NEIGHBORHOODS AND KEEP US SAFE

- Support and expand our neighborhood associations so every voice is heard.
- Bring back community policing and crime prevention.
- Fight climate change so that Portland is a livable city now and in the future.

"Portlanders deserve to be represented by someone with real experience. As someone who knows the ins and outs of City Hall, I can tell you Mingus is that leader." - Mark Wells, Former Crime Prevention Program Coordinator

These organizations and community leaders proudly support Mingus:

Portland Community College Federation of Faculty and Academic Professionals
Columbia Pacific Building Trades
Portland Metropolitan Association of REALTORS
Mary Wendy Roberts, Former Labor Commissioner
Denyse Peterson, Multnomah Education Service District Board Member
