“Jessica Vega Pederson was the overwhelming choice of voters in the Primary because she is the only one with a record of bringing people together to get big things done at the state and local level. She’s the clear choice to lead Multnomah County.” —Former Governor Barbara Roberts

A Progressive Leader.
Delivering on What Matters.

As a mom, East Portland community leader, businesswoman, Oregon’s first Latina state representative, and County Commissioner, Jessica Vega Pederson has delivered on what matters for Multnomah County’s families.

Confronting the Crisis on Our Streets

Homelessness is complex, but that’s no excuse for not taking immediate action. Jessica will use her public and private sector experience to get results:

- Bring state and local governments together to clean up encampment trash.
- Expand shelter options with hygiene, mental health, and addiction services.
- Deliver new affordable housing faster and more cost effectively.

See her plan: at https://www.jessicavegapederson.com/housing-and-houslessness

Turning our Values into Results

Championed Preschool for All to provide free preschool for all 3- and 4-year-olds in Multnomah County.

Passed gun safety laws as State Representative and will expand efforts to reduce gun violence.

Put Oregon on the path to coal free electricity, clean fuels and 100% clean energy in Multnomah County.

Pro-Choice Champion

Her record of fighting for reproductive health and abortion rights is why Jessica is the only candidate endorsed by Pro-Choice Oregon.
