I've spent my career taking on the toughest fights: supporting sexual assault survivors, foster youth, and people experiencing homelessness.

As your next County Chair, I'll build better systems by drawing in people closest to the problem: service providers, small business owners, neighbors, and even people who don't always agree with me. That's how we find real, lasting solutions to our homelessness crisis, lower costs, and support families.

Rank Shannon Singleton #1

"When Donald Trump and ICE attacked Oregon, Shannon led the fight to get help to families that were hurt." - Oregon Senate Majority Leader Kayse Jama

"When Multnomah County came up $100 million short for homeless services, Shannon found money in the budget to help close the gap and fought for sustainable funding for employment, shelter and housing services." - Portland City Council Housing Chair Candace Avalos

"The families we work with are struggling to pay bills. We know Shannon won't back down or stop fighting to lower costs and provide real relief: affordable housing and good-paying, union jobs" - Oregon Working Families Party Director, Annie Naranjo-Rivera
