Optional Information

IT'S TIME TO CLEAN UP OUR COUNTY. Gun violence, homicides, homelessness, unsheltered deaths, drug addiction, garbage, human waste, and theft, have exploded rapidly, in part due to the failed leadership of the three County Commissioners running against me who've been in power for years. This is a critical time for real leadership, not empty promises and excuses. Are you in?

Unlike my opponents, I won't tolerate unsanctioned encampments on our public sidewalks, streets, parks, and schools, when there are inexpensive and humane alternatives that can be implemented immediately. As Chair, I'd convert public lots into sanctioned camp areas and ensure every unsheltered person is connected to a fixed address with toilets, showers, garbage removal, and laundry services. Concurrently, we must expand sanctioned RV parks, tiny home villages, shelters, and treatment options (including dual-diagnosis). Case managers would then get everyone eligible onto SSDI (so the Feds can relieve some local tax burden), rehabilitate others, and for the dangerous/violent: get them into mandatory treatment.

Portland-born, I am a solutions-oriented Democrat willing to work with everyone. As an Egyptian-American Muslim who grew up facing bigotry post-9/11, and an employment rights lawyer, my policies are rooted in equity and uplifting vulnerable voices. My experience at the Oregon DOJ in civil commitment, police decertification, prison cases, and later in criminal defense, have and will inform my tough but compassionate approach. If you like the status quo, vote for one of the sitting Commissioners running against me; but if you want competent, rapid action, vote for me. Please. We deserve a cleaner, safer, more vibrant County. www.votemayfield.com
