MULTNOMAH COUNTY: LET FIX IT!

We have no more time to waste.

Too often, Multnomah County decision making lacks focus, urgency, and accountability. I offer a track record of success bringing people together to tackle big bureaucratic problems.

Day one, I will hit the ground running:

- Starting in Portland, adopt a countywide phased-in ban on self-sited camping.
- New County support to help fund 20,000 new rental housing units in 10 years.
- Reopen County sobering center, more effective drug, and mental illness services.
- Open more County jail beds, hire more DAs, public defenders, expand recovery programs to stop violence and crime.

"Sam is a man of action... And sometimes he moves faster than others might like... Under the circumstances, action is really important."

- Jim Middaugh, Portland Monthly, July 2022

"He is a strong leader... He is accessible, decisive and executes quickly."

- The Skanner, May 1, 2020

"Adams... cutting through City Council opposition by advising the mayor to declare a series of emergency orders that cleared campers."

- Willamette Week, Jan. 17, 2024

"His upbringing included tough times, made tougher when government failed to help his family, and that fuels Sam's deep passion for getting public services right, especially those going through their own tough times."

- Antoinette Edwards, Community Elder

Endorsements include:

- Willamette Democratic Women
- United for Portland
- Multnomah County Commissioners from when the county worked better: Gary Hansen, Diane McKeel, Lisa Naito, Dan Saltzman, Judy Shiprack, and Maria Rojo de Steffe.
