Multnomah County doesn't just have a homeless crisis; we have a drug and mental illness crisis coupled with a bad policy and weak leadership crisis. I bring proven leadership, experience and practical solutions to make your government work and accountable for spending your tax dollars.

Multnomah County has tolerated, if not enabled, a public safety and humanitarian crisis for far too long. I will not. Working together with City, State and Federal leaders, I will rapidly expand shelter, treatment programs, and re-open a 24/7 sobering and detox center to help those in need while banning camping everywhere else.

People don't feel safe. When you call for police, fire, and aid, you depend on a quick response. Lives are at stake. I'll rebuild our public safety infrastructure so that we have a rapid response you can count on. That's why the Portland Firefighters Association and incoming District Attorney Nathan Vasquez endorsed me.

"Mozyrsky brings the combination of experience, detail-oriented attention and executive mindset that prepare him best for the role of commissioner...." -The Oregonian, 4/21/23 Editorial

“Vadim Mozyrsky has shown evidence-based leadership ... County government can be turned around if we pick the right representatives, such as Vadim.” -NW Examiner endorsement

“Vadim has earned my trust and my confidence. I hope you will join me in supporting him as my successor as the County Commissioner representing District 1.” -Commissioner Sharon Meieran
