Voter Pamphlet Statement:

I'm a lifelong District 2 resident, social worker, and community advocate. I believe our County works best when the people most affected are in decision-making positions. My mother, Nikki Williams, taught me what it means to invest in our community by fighting for affordable housing, safer communities, and dignity for working families. Leadership is about creating opportunities and leaving our communities stronger. As a culturally specific mental health consultant, I work alongside families, children, and providers to strengthen access to services and improve outcomes. I've seen what happens when government listens to community.

I will fight for:

- Affordable housing with stronger eviction prevention so families aren't pushed out.
- Behavioral health and culturally specific services that meet people where they are.
- Safer neighborhoods through investments in restorative justice, holistic health, prevention, youth, community-based solutions, and services for survivors.
- Living wage jobs, career pathways, and a County that partners with local economic development efforts.
- Responsible budgeting that prioritizes essential services and programs that deliver measurable results.
- A government that is transparent, accountable, and accessible to every community.
