Formatted Statement

ROOTED HERE, READY TO SERVE N/NE PORTLAND

Born in North Portland and raised in NE Portland, Tony is deeply connected to our community. Whether it's as a homelessness services provider, small business owner, youth coach and mentor, or a leader in civil rights enforcement, Tony finds the way to help people; overcoming challenges and finding solutions that work.

ANOTHER POLITICIAN ISN'T THE ANSWER

North and NE Portland have faced structural challenges for decades. Unequal access to economic prosperity. Housing affordability. Inadequate infrastructure. Social inequality. In many cases, government decisions like how we spend on housing and homelessness programs and underinvestment in East Portland are responsible for the conditions today. Electing another politician isn't going to fix things. We need someone who will always stand up for us.

MAKE GOVERNMENT WORK FOR US

On the County Commission, Tony won't be another politician. He'll challenge local governments to be smarter, work together, and effectively serve our community. He's willing to ask the tough questions to ensure accountability to promises made with taxpayer dollars. We can count on him because he will always find a way to get the job done.

Tony will:

- Move Forward on Homelessness and Housing
- Build Shared Economic Prosperity
- Better Mental Health and Addiction Services
- Ensure Greater Transparency on the Use of Tax Dollars
- Strengthen Local Government's Relationship with Small Businesses

WE SUPPORT TONY!
