Proven Leadership. Real Results. Safer Communities.

Dear Neighbors,

Building on 30 years of service, I have spent the last four years as Sheriff working to make the Sheriff's Office more responsive, accountable, transparent, and effective.

Together, we have made significant progress:

- Reduced gun violence incidents and property crime, person crime trending downward.
- Achieved law enforcement and corrections accreditation.
- Expanded public access to critical reports and data.
- Initiated independent corrections system reviews by national experts.
- Increased Transit Police public safety presence.
- Reduced agency vacancy rate by nearly 40%.

This progress reflects focused leadership, visible presence, strong partnerships, and workforce investments. My approach elevates the voices of victims and survivors, supports accountability for those engaged in criminal activity, and values community relationships.

With your support, in the next 4 years, I will prioritize:

- Continuing to reduce crime and strengthen community safety.
- Ensuring a safe, accountable corrections system.
- Expanding behavioral health and reentry efforts.
- Building a stable, resilient workforce.
- Promoting public trust and strong community partnerships.

As your Sheriff, I will remain transparent, responsive, and focused on continuous improvement, safer communities, and care for those in our corrections facilities.
