Resident's Rights

The Operator is required to give you at least 30 days written notice when requiring you to transfer to another room in the adult care home, or moving involuntarily from the adult care home to another setting, or when selling the home.

The written notice must state the specific reasons why you are being asked to move.

The written notice must be provided to you, your legal representative, your case manager and any other appropriate persons at least 30 days prior to the proposed move out date.

You have the right to object to the notice and to the right to request a conference or hearing. To request a conference or hearing, call the Multnomah County Adult Care Home Program at 503-988-3000, or contact us at 600 NE 8th St., Suite 100, Gresham, OR 97030, or email us at advsd.adult.carehomeprogram@multco.us.

If you do not want to move or if you have questions about your right to disagree with this notice, you may also contact the Oregon Long-Term Care Ombudsman at 1-800-522-2602, or 830 D St. NE, Salem, Oregon 97301, or email at LTCOinfo@oregon.gov. I/DD residents and mental health and addictions residents should contact the Residential Facilities Ombudsman Program at 1-877-674-4567 or rfo.info@rights.oregon.gov.

You may waive your right to a 30 day notice, in writing.

Requirements for issuing less than 30 days' notice:

Only the Director of the Aging, Disability & Veterans Services Division, or his/her designee, may issue less than 30 days notice, and only if the Division finds that an emergency exists. This emergency finding will only be made if there is a medical emergency, or if there is an immediate threat to the life, health, or safety of the resident, other residents, the Operator, employees, or other household members. The finding will be made from documented evidence.
