OPTIONAL INFORMATION

Terry Jordan, 54
Spouse, Mom, teacher, small business owner

Lake Oswego is the most beautiful and livable city my husband Bob and I have ever called "home." We moved here nine years ago to raise our son, Timothy.

I am running for city council to take an active role in our community.

I envision exceptional schools, thriving small businesses, diversity in housing, sustainable practices, and a results-driven, fiscally responsible government.

My priorities include:

- Investing in the safety and health of all our citizens with the necessary maintenance of infrastructure
- Supporting family-friendly neighborhoods through cultural and recreational resources for all ages
- Working with our surrounding communities to create a prosperous region while maintaining our unique identity.

I bring a fresh perspective to city council free from past issues and agendas, ready to listen to my fellow citizens and collaborate with city councilors on every issue that comes before us. Together we will work to keep Lake Oswego thriving and adapting to the needs of our current and future generations.

I am excited by the prospect of representing you and I ask for your vote.
