Kent Studebaker – Preserving and Serving Lake Oswego

Kent Studebaker – Spending Restraints

"Together we can build a dynamic, affordable, well educated community without leaving a burden of debt with our children."

- Must have a long term plan with agreed upon priorities
- Spend first on roads, pathways, police, fire, parks and other infrastructure
- Stop the tremendous increase in Lake Oswego debt

Kent Studebaker – The Rights of Citizens

"I will lead, not dictate. City government must work in tandem with the citizens it serves"

- Allow citizens full enjoyment of their property without over-reaching regulations
- Re-instate the bi-annual community survey to solicit your opinions and concerns
- Let's not chase families out of Lake Oswego because of skyrocketing fees and costs of living here

Kent Studebaker – A Balanced Approach

"I want Lake Oswego to progress towards a dynamic future in a fiscally responsible way that preserves its character."

- Enhance and preserve what we have
- Keep zoning consistent with our residential character, not re-zone to allow high density infill
- Make sure our environment is business friendly with a well educated work force
