OPTIONAL STATEMENT:

Having had three children successfully graduate from Centennial High School and four grandchildren in Lynch Meadows Elementary, I found that a comprehensive and coordinated system is necessary for positive results to occur. Centennial may be faced with fiscal and academic challenges, but as a board member, I will work to find solutions that will not compromise the quality of our children's educational experience nor the excellence of our teachers and staff. As a community college educator I see the value in a strong K-12 education program that will partner with our community colleges and universities. Cooperation and communication are the key. These are skills I will bring to the Board.

A board director has many jobs to do: policy maker, budget analyst, parent representative, judge, cheerleader, listener and always a champion for our kids. If you were able to talk with me right now, you would find a person who, when challenged by difficult situations, will work harder and think deeper. I am unafraid to think innovatively while working collaboratively with fellow board members, teachers, and staff for solutions to budget and academic issues.

I believe that I am the candidate with the business and education background to vote for in this election – I would appreciate your support and your vote!
