Centering the Community in Portland Community College

As a former PCC Student Trustee and PCC District Student Council Chair, current Chief of Staff to a State Senator, proud union member, and active community member, I will be a valuable addition to the PCC Board.

During my time at PCC, I successfully advocated for policies that tackled the barriers our students continue to face such as food and housing insecurity, and the rising cost of textbooks, childcare, and transportation.

We expanded food pantries to all PCC campuses, saved students over $2M in textbook costs through the OER initiative, allocated funding for the DREAMers Resource Center, and established the first all-user restroom at the SE Campus. There is so much more work to be done.

I'm proud to be a gay man, an immigrant from Vietnam, and a first-generation college student from a working-class family. Even though I cannot represent everyone, I will be a collaborative board member who actively listens with an open mind and heart while using my lived experience to inform my decisions.

I look forward to working with student leaders, faculty and staff unions, college administration, fellow board members, and community partners to ensure PCC is the bridge to opportunity for all.

I'm proudly supported by:

- PCC Director Michael Sonnleitner
- Senator Michael Dembrow
- Senator Lew Frederick

- Senator Kayse Jama
- Representative Khanh Pham
