Portland deserves an auditor who sees the promise of our people and our city and will use the office to get best the possible outcomes for all of us.

As your accountability champion I have worked to:

- Strengthen oversight of the Joint Office of Homeless Services by conducting the first city audit of the shelter system.
- Reduce waste and harm to Portlanders; including reducing demands on firefighters so they are there when we need them most.
- Bring transparency and accountability to city spending and programs.

There is much more work to be done. You can count on me to uphold highest professional standards, remain independent, and apply my auditing authority and expertise to ensure fair opportunities and effective use of tax dollars.
