Formatted Statement

Big Glasses, Clear Vision

It's time we had a City Council that believes in Portland.

We need more working-class voices on Council to stand up to a fascist regime, have a backbone against special monied interests, and refuse to accept the status quo.

We're all frustrated by a lack of progress on important issues facing our city. But Portland can do hard things. All it takes is one new progressive leader to break the deadlock on Council and make real, lasting, positive change.

I've worked for the City of Portland for almost a decade doing hard things and proving what's possible:

- Tenant protections to increase access to housing.
- Buses out of traffic to make transit easier and faster.
- Transition to a new form of government to improve representation.

All while raising five kids (including one with developmental disabilities) as a renter and a car-free transit rider. I have the real-world experience to stay focused on what matters most: building stable homes, stable families, and stable lives.
