I'm Josh. Portland native, housing-finance expert, film producer, and former Portland Police Bureau Explorer Scout. I live and work in our district, and I want to fix its problems. I'm running to help build a safer, healthier, and more vibrant community.

Public Safety and Behavioral Health: Portlanders deserve results. We must address property crime and public disorder through effective, data-informed enforcement while treating our unsheltered neighbors with dignity and recognizing that poverty is not a crime.

Housing: For 20 years, I have financed and built housing and helped Portlanders save money on their largest investments. I know how to combine public resources, private investment, and federal funding to transform underused land into thousands of accessible homes.

Culture and Community: I will support workforce development, strengthen Portland's creative and technology economies, activate our public spaces, and help build a vibrant future for District 4.

Your District 4 Councilor: I will be accessible and responsive. You should not need to make a donation to get your councilor's attention. I'm running to build a safer, healthier District 4—and I'm committed to serving this community for the long term.
