As a former educator and longtime advocate,
Christy will be the champion that we need for Portland's public schools.
- Former State Senator Michael Dembrow

I am the mom of two elementary school students, a former teacher, a leader in our school's PTA, and an organizer in the fight for increased school funding. Public schools are the foundation of our community, where kids and adults alike learn from each other and build community. I see the magic that happens every day, and I also see the barriers our students and educators face. My priority is to reduce those barriers and help make every school a joyful, loving place to grow, learn, and work.

As your school board director, I will:

- Listen to students, families, teachers, administrators, and support staff
- Promote policies and budgets that center students and schools
- Advocate for what our students, teachers, and staff need to succeed
- Champion school funding, racial equity, and social justice

A great city needs great schools. Let's make it happen!
