OPPORTUNITY, ACCESS, ACHIEVEMENT:

Our district faces challenges, but with vision and leadership, they also present opportunities to create access and opportunity for students we've left behind.

As an educator and working mom to kids at Woodlawn Elementary and Harriet Tubman Middle School, Rashelle has dedicated her career to ensuring every child experiences high-quality education and the support and resources they need to thrive.

"This moment calls for an experienced leader like Rashelle who can see the big picture and puts our students' success first. As an educator, administrator, and PPS parent, we need her expertise in literacy, special education, and school safety now."

- Michelle DePass and Eddie Wang, Portland Public School Board

Rashelle will lead with:

- INNOVATION: student-focused solutions that meet their unique needs post-COVID
- LITERACY: Evidence-based practices that empower all learners
- ACCOUNTABILITY: Demand better results by fully funding schools, including special education
- COMMUNITY: safe and inclusive community schools where kids have their basic needs met through wrap-around services
- JUSTICE: eliminate the racial achievement gap through multi-tiered supports
