Jorge Sanchez
Bautista

Occupation: Recreation Associate, Portland Parks and Recreation

Occupational Background: Youth Futures Initiative, Portland State University

Educational Background: Leodis V. McDaniel High School

Prior Governance Service: Oregon State Board of Education; Cully Neighborhood Tax Increment Financing District Community Leadership Committee; Portland Committee on Community-Engaged Policing; New Portlanders Policy Commission

Jorge is a student, a community organizer, and an advocate. He's a proud son of Mexican immigrants, a supporter of unions, and a voice for working families. If elected, Jorge will be the FIRST LGBTQ+ person of color and the youngest school board member in Portland Public Schools board history. After years of gaining expertise from his time on the State Board of Education and his time as a student in Portland schools, Jorge will work tirelessly to make sure our schools work for all of us—especially the least heard.

Vote Jorge for Portland Public Schools Zone 5!

As your School Board Member, Jorge will fight for:

- Equitable and Inclusive Schools, where students receive resources no matter their background—including changing our lottery school program to serve students better, advocating for cleaner and safer schools, and expanding immersion programs.
- Strengthen Community Engagement, with parents, students, and educators being part of the decision making process—including visiting schools, hosting events, and making new connections between the school board and our communities.
- Financial Stewardship and Accountability, ensuring that our dollars are going into what we really need—including prioritizing classroom budgets, putting students before profits, valuing our teachers and staff members, and rebuilding trust between Portlanders and their schools.
