Statement of Values:

I value authenticity, hard work, community listening, and fighting on behalf of kids' well being and for what's right in our education system. I stand for racial, economic, and social justice in all aspects of education and the school board. I believe in the autonomy of parents, while also valuing the collective good and public health. Teachers are one of our society's greatest assets and leaders, and should be treated as such.

What will you fight for?

I'm running on three main aspirations: pay teachers their worth; incorporate climate change, social justice, arts, and modern skills in curriculum; and invest in strong afterschool programming.

Especially with what's going on with disinvestments at the federal level, we must take a stand for our children. When we prioritize our kids, we help our democracy, economy, and culture. I am here to talk and listen to anyone. Vote for me and vote for our kids' well being and success, so that we can all thrive.

Endorsements: Separate process for endorsements: Check guidelines carefully.
Broad Appeal. Must have sign-off of endorser.
