Parent . Coach . Advocate

I am running for School Board to build a public school system that is well-funded, healthy and equitable.

As a public defender of 20+ years, I advocate for our most vulnerable – youth and families. As a mom to 3, a soccer and Oregon Battle of the Books coach, and active PPS volunteer, I know when our kids get support, education and resources, they thrive. I will fight for this!

Champion for Schools & Students

My priorities:

- A well-funded education, including special education
- Fiscal responsibility: ensure tax dollars are focused in classrooms; prioritize bond funds to repair, improve aging schools
- Reading, math supports for students to catch up and excel
- More art, music!
- Diverse career training, college prep classes
- Protecting marginalized students
- Mental health and counseling in every school

I ask for your support!

Caryn Anderson, OnPoint 2023 Teacher of the Year: "Steph is a strong voice and advocates for kids and put their needs first. Stephanie will be a champion for our kids and our schools."

Randall Edwards, former State Treasurer: "Stephanie will not hesitate to ask tough questions. She will hold the district to high financial standards to ensure our tax dollars best support our students."
