

MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON

PROCLAMATION NO. 52

Proclaiming February 17th 2026 as Chinese Lunisolar New Year in Multnomah County.

Multnomah County Finds:

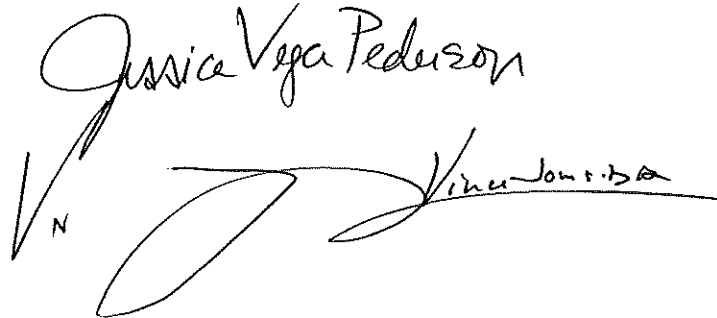

- A. Recognizing billions across East and Southeast Asia, including originally in China (Spring Festival), Vietnam (Tết), Korea (Seollal), Singapore, Malaysia, and in Asian diaspora communities worldwide adopt and celebrate the Chinese Lunisolar New Year.
- B. The Chinese Lunisolar New Year marks the beginning of a new year in the lunisolar calendar which coincides with the new Spring of the year.
- C. Multnomah County recognizes the rich cultural diversity in Multnomah County and wants to honor this international day of celebration. To reflect its roots and show cultural appreciation. We encourage diverse cultures to celebrate the New Year in languages they prefer.

Multnomah County Proclaims:

1. This February 17th 2026 to be Chinese Lunisolar New Year and encourages members of the public to celebrate.

SIGNED this 4th day of March, 2026.

Julia Brim-Edwards

Jessica Vega Pederson

REVIEWED:
JENNY M. MADKOUR, COUNTY ATTORNEY
FOR MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON

By:

Jenny M. Madkour, County Attorney

SUBMITTED BY: Commissioner Shannon Singleton District 2