

Submitted on May 18, 2022

I support the amendments proposed by the current auditor. It is imperative that the auditor, like the CIC is supposed to be, be independent. I worked with Steve March when he was auditor as a volunteer and staff. Audits ensure that taxpayer funds are well spent and citizens receive the services they need. Auditors are part of the checks and balances. This office must be truly independent and not controlled by the chairs office as the Citizens Involvement Committee has become.

Sherry Willmschen