Home and Community-Based Services

As a residential Home and Community-Based setting, adult care homes offer support for:

- Community integration including seeking employment, engaging in greater community life and/or community services, and controlling one's own personal resources;
- Individual initiative, autonomy, self-direction, and independence in making life choices including but not limited to daily activities, physical environment, and with whom to interact;
- Individual choice regarding services and supports and who provides these services and supports;
- The opportunity to select one's residential setting from among available setting options based on the needs and preferences of the resident and the available resources of the resident for room and board.

You have rights, freedoms, and protections guaranteed to you as part of the Home and Community-Based Services Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR 411-004). There may be times when these are limited due to health and safety risks. A limitation to any of these freedoms and protections will always be based on a specific assessed need, and will not be implemented without you or your legal representative's informed consent.

Your HCBS rights include:

- Rights to privacy, dignity, respect, and freedom from coercion.
- Lockable bedroom door for privacy, ability to furnish and decorate your space, and have visitors of your choosing as noted in the Locks, Living Accommodations, Décor, Storage, and Visitor sections above.
- The right to access food at any time.

- The right to choose your roommate. If you share a room, you will be offered a choice of roommate prior to final selection of the roommate. However, you may not refuse roommates simply to have a private room. Refusing roommates to obtain a private room may result in additional charges, not to exceed the current Medicaid room and board standard. You will receive at least a 30-day notice before any additional charges are due. Failure to pay additional charges may result in a 30-day involuntary move-out notice for nonpayment.
- The right to control your schedule and activities
- Individual right of freedom from restraints except in accordance with the standards set forth in ORS 443.739, OAR chapters 309 and 411, 1915(c) HCBS Waivers, 1915(i) State Plan HCBS, or 1915(k) Community First Choice (K State Plan Option). When the right of freedom from restraint must be limited due to a threat to the health and safety of an individual or others, individually-based limitations as described in OAR 411-004-0040 apply.
- Please note, exercising Resident HCBS rights, freedoms, and protections may not infringe on the privacy and rights of others and should be respectful to others living in the home.

Resident's Bill of Rights. The Operator, the Operator's family, and employees of the home must not violate your Resident's Rights and are expected to help you exercise these rights. The Residents' Bill of Rights provided by the ACHP must be explained and a copy must be given to you at the time of admission.

_____ (Resident or Representative's Initials) I have been provided the opportunity to review and sign the Residents' Bill of Rights and have been given a copy of the signed document.
