

Public comment opportunity - July 10 to Aug. 25, 2023

2023 Regional Transportation Plan

Your input will help guide decision-makers as they work together to finalize the policies, strategies and projects that will shape Greater Portland's transportation system through 2045.

How people get around shapes their communities and everyday lives. The economic prosperity and quality of life in greater Portland depend on a transportation system that provides every person and business with access to safe, reliable and affordable ways to get around.

Your voice is important

The Metro Council and other decision-makers want to hear from you. From July 10 through Aug. 25, 2023, provide your feedback on the 2023 Regional Transportation Plan and High Capacity Transit Strategy.

2023 Regional Transportation Plan

The Regional Transportation Plan is a blueprint that guides investments in for all forms of travel – driving, transit, biking and walking – and the movement of goods and services throughout the greater Portland region. This update to the plan

oregonmetro.gov/rtp

defines how the region will create a safe, reliable and affordable transportation system today through 2045.

During this comment period, the Metro Council will ask for public review and comment on the draft policies in the 2023 Regional Transportation Plan, draft strategy for high capacity transit and the projects recommended by transportation agencies to address the region's significant and growing transportation needs.

High Capacity Transit Strategy

High capacity transit is public transportation that moves a lot of people quickly and often, such as light rail or bus rapid transit.

The purpose of the High Capacity Transit Strategy is to provide a coordinated vision and a set of policies to make transit service faster and more reliable for more people in the greater Portland region.
