Optional Information:

Candidate Statement

I have been serving on the Reynolds School District Board since 2023. I am currently the Vice Chair.

I am a dedicated public school proponent. I believe public schools are the center of our community where students can find knowledge and build skills to become successful in life. Public schools offer students from all backgrounds the chance to explore and participate in new activities. Strong public schools are a key part of a resilient future. I believe that all of our students must feel safe and supported in our schools. The diversity of our community is a strength.
