Troutdale's budget director has continually warned Troutdale is running out of money. The city council and the budget committee continue to ignore him. If you don't want Troutdale to spend more of your money than we take in, VOTE ROBERT CANFIELD.

Troutdale parks need more money. We'd have more money if everyone paid their fair share of taxes. Troutdale businesses told the city they're ok paying their fair share. The only people against business paying their fair share is the council and budget committee. If you want EVERYONE to pay their fair share of taxes, VOTE ROBERT CANFIELD.

In Troutdale, small business has a tough time dealing with the city. Permits are hard to get. Applications sometimes sit on someone's desk for months. If you want to make sure Troutdale is "easy to do business with", VOTE ROBERT CANFIELD.

Troutdale's city council voted to give tax breaks for a now-cancelled natural gas-fired power plant. It would have polluted Troutdale and the Columbia River Gorge. If you want CLEAN ENERGY businesses in Troutdale, VOTE ROBERT CANFIELD.

If you want someone who will provide much needed leadership, who will professionally and respectfully represent all Troutdale residents and businesses, VOTE ROBERT CANFIELD.

Endorsements: State Rep. Chris Gorsek; Doug Daoust, Mayor of Troutdale; Ted Tosterud, Mayor of Fairview; John Wilson, Troutdale city councillor; Donna Erwin; Terry & Jody Smoke, Troutdale General Store; West Columbia Gorge Chamber of Commerce; Tami Tlustos-Arnold.
