COVID-19 has harmed people we care about, frayed our social connections, damaged our health and financial security.

That's why Portland needs a leader with a proven track record of getting tough stuff done during tough times. Someone tested. Someone who works relentlessly. Someone who delivers results.

That's what Sam Adams offers. It's never been more important.

Leadership when it counts

"Floods, snowstorms, riots, recessions... Sam has helped guide Portland through it all, as a strong and steady leader. We need that City Council experience now."—Sheriff Mike Reese

"...even his toughest critics acknowledged by the end of his term that he had been an accomplished mayor." —Willamette Week, 7/24/19

Sustainable, equitable recovery centered on jobs, workers, small businesses

“Sam was Portland’s Mayor during the Great Recession. He fast-tracked construction projects, supported small businesses, got people back to work. We can count on him to do it again.” — Fay Burch, John Mohlis, Joe Esmonde, Fred Sanchez - labor and business leaders

Support for vulnerable communities

“Sam made investments to help people stay in their homes. He provided more assistance to the unemployed and shelter for the houseless. Now he has a plan to help Portlanders again.”
—Doreen Binder and Steve Rudman – affordable housing advocates

Fighting for all Portland families

“No one in this race has done more to support public schools. We trust Sam’s unbreakable commitment to help reopen schools and put our students and families first.” —Gwenn Sullivan, Ann Nice, Rebecca Levison — Teachers’ union past presidents
