ELECT SETH WOOLLEY FOR
PUBLIC HEALTH, GOOD GOVERNMENT, AND FOR GREEN NEW DEAL JOBS

"Seth Woolley is a whip-smart government wonk."

—Willamette Week, 10/16/2012

Seth's approach to government is similar to his professional life: dig deep into data and records, look for significant problems, and propose and implement data-driven, popular solutions.

Before Seth's public record work at Portland Clean Air, there was no systematic or online mapped analysis of polluters across the Portland metro region. Neighbors only learned of air pollution discharges based on what they could smell, reports of failed reverse-911 phone calls, or bouts of investigative journalism.

The root cause of not regulating air quality with concern for public health was Oregon's system of unlimited political bribery in the form of big money campaign donations. Before Seth's analysis for Honest Elections, work to get campaign finance reform on the ballot, and active enforcement with official complaints and court filings, Portland's political campaigns were heavily funded by big money donors and special interests with matters before council.

Political staffers are often campaign workers reaping patronage instead of competent administrators. Portland's ethics rules remain weak and ineffective. Seth will appoint good government reformers to the Portland Charter Commission to help deeply fix public corruption and to reform our antiquated commissioner form of government.

POLITICS SHOULD BE ABOUT DEMOCRACY
AND INFORMED BY OPEN DATA AND PUBLIC INPUT.
