Our Lake Oswego Community is The Customer

"During my first term we listened to the community and together established a big picture plan." Councilor Skip O'Neill

- Core services - police, fire, roads and other infrastructure are prioritized.
- Schools, pathways, parks and the arts benefited from a new focus.
- Direction and council discipline allowed us to meet challenges and stabilize the budget without raising taxes.
- We are building a new Maintenance Center, designing a new Police and 911 Center.
- New businesses are moving in.
- Additional housing options are being built.

Focus and Vision Must Continue

"We will have an awesome city dominated by a Lake Oswego vision not a Portland agenda." Councilor Skip O'Neill

- Our priorities must continue so new taxpaying families locate here to support our schools.
- Tax generating businesses should be encouraged to stay or re-locate, again to support our students.
- Private property owners, good stewards of their land, should not be overwhelmed with burdensome regulations.
- We must protect neighborhoods against higher density developments.
- Careful growth should go hand in hand with retaining the Oswego character.
- City government must be about balance, priorities, inclusiveness and decisiveness.

"I ask for your vote for re-election so I can again bring an understanding of the issues, meet the challenges and work with you all. As a family we have been deeply involved in this community for over thirty four years. I look forward to a great future for LO." Councilor Skip O'Neill
