STEVE NOVICK: OUR PROGRESSIVE CHAMPION!

"Steve Novick ran promising to be the voice for Portland's progressive values on City Council and that's exactly what he's done. He won adoption of social responsible investment standards that ensure the City doesn't invest in unethical low-wage employers like Wal-Mart." Meg Neimi, President, SEIU Local 49

"To help Portland's workers, Steve helped pass earned paid sick leave, now he's working with us to end abusive scheduling practices." UFCW Local 555

Steve has led the City to its biggest investment in transportation maintenance and safety in thirty years. He's leading the charge to fix our roads and improve traffic safety. Steve has been a good labor partner for professional employees at the City." PTE Local 17

"Steve continues to work hard to raise public awareness and expand earthquake preparedness. He's secured federal funding for a program to retrofit houses to survive an earthquake and has expanded the program to help more Portland families." Portland Fire Fighters' Association

"Steve is an environmental champion on City Council. He has a long history of protecting our environment from making sure polluters pay, to leading the call on City Council to address the growing threat of climate change. Few can match his knowledge and passion when it comes to protecting the planet." Oregon League of Conservation Voters

STEVE DESERVES A SECOND TERM!

"I've worked hard championing progressive values on the city council. I hope I've earned your vote to continue to serve you" - Steve
