

Qualifying Parking Expenses (under the Parking TRP)	Qualifying Transit Expenses (under the Transit TRP)
Parking at or near work	Transit agency passes or tickets (such as C-Tran Express Routes)
Parking at or near public transportation to get to work	Vanpool*
Costs to park your bike if incurred due to bicycling to/from work

*Vanpool is defined by the IRS as: having a seating capacity of 6 or more adults, excluding driver, where 80% or more of miles for which vehicle is used is for transporting employees back and forth between work and home during which trips the vehicle is at least 50% full

NOT Eligible under the Parking TRP	NOT Eligible under the Transit TRP
Employee parking garage if this is already deducted from your paychecks	Taxi/Uber/Lyft
Employee Zone parking if this is already deducted from your paychecks	Carpools (payments to a fellow participant in a carpool or to a friend who drives you to work)
Costs that have been or will be paid by your employer, such as for a business trip	Any public transportation cost that's already included with your Employee TriMet Pass
Parking at a mall or similar location where you stop on your drive to or from your place of work	Traffic Tickets
	Fuel, mileage, or other costs you incur in operating a vehicle